I wage war on your way of life and every little thing that you are

I'll tear you apart piece by piece until all that's left are the scars

Treat me like I'm diseased when the only flaw is you

Fool of backwards morals

Bruises on the fruit

You spit falsehoods in my name when I'm not around

I'm tired of your games

I'll knock you to the ground

I wage war on your way of life and all that you're about

If you don't shut your mouth

I'm gonna knock you out

You act as if you're better but we all know the truth

You're a spoiled little child in a bad grown up suit

If your eyes were the window to your soul your mouth would be your asshole

Attention Starved

I'm so hungry

I'm so fucking hungry

Everybody look at me

I'm starving

Drop your shit and look at me

Everybody look at me

I don't care what you want you're only here for me

I don't care how you feel you're not important to me

I'm the center of the universe

I'm the sun which you orbit

I don't care what you need

you're not important to me

Everybody look at me

We all know my shit don't stink

Center of everything

Look at me look at me

Attention is what I want

Attention is what I need

Attention is everything

Look at me look at me
