"If I"

I live my life like a 38

Pointed straight but shooting blanks

Killing Angels but they don't don't die

I'm heading on a course of change,

Lost my brother on the run

Lost my dignity to one

I blame them others and take none

Am I a man.

I wake up every day in rage

Sore from bumping round my cage

I see my father broken down

He seem so strong up until now

And all the inner conflicts groan

Cause now I question all I know

And I just need something I could feel

[Chorus]

So If Iâ€™

Crash into you

And If Iâ€™

Dare Not Run away

It's Cause Iâ€™

Need someone to touch

Whether it's pain

Heavenly or pain

And if by chance

Chance we don't collide

Then I'll take

Take much better aim

It's cause we need

Need someone to touch

Whether it's heavenly or pain

[Guitar Solo]

[Verse 2] (Rap)

I will understand you | Judge You | Protect you | Berate
you

Help you | Punish you | Guide you | Forsake you

We speed through life like we speed through life |

In the blink of an eye it could mean your life |

Frighten by stereotypes our senses become heighten |

When fear meets the truth it's like the clash of the titans |

We cross the same intersection | Where perception
becomes deception |

Mirrored reflections of an ugly complexion |

It's a mess that people think we are who we are Based on what they hear or read or by the color we are

In life we are put in predicaments where incidents
meets the innocent |

That "Crash" our conscious with contents of nonsense |

When I breakdown and "Crash"

[Chorus]

So If Iâ€™

Crash into you

And If Iâ€™

Dare Not Run away

It's Cause Iâ€™

Need someone to touch

Whether it'sâ€™

Heavenly or pain

And if byâ€™

Chance we don't collide

Then I'llâ€™

Take much better aim

It's cause weâ€™

Need someone to touch

Whether it's heavenly or pain
