Walking down on Sounds Beach
It seems that everyone is so incomplete
And then I see you standing over there
Five foot five and long blonde hair
You know you don't see girls like her very much
She moves like June and she talks like March

Oh I know that I was wrong
I couldn't see through you
You know I'm strange but then again
That's just the way I am
Seek a change and start again

Carolina
I see your face in everything
Carolina
Maybe I'll see you again someday

Every time I see you
Its like your always in my head
But after this summer
Well I know that I wont ever see you again
It's all my fault, It's all my fault
But I'm beggin' you please to stay with me

Oh I know that I was wrong
I couldn't see through you
You know I'm strange but then again
That's just the way I am
Seek a change and start again

Carolina
I see your face in everything
Carolina
Maybe I'll see you again someday

I can't believe that you're leaving now
I want you to stay for awhile
It's that I have to say
I don't wanna say goodbye

Carolina

I see your face in everything
Oh my my...

Carolina
Oh my my....

Maybe I'll see you again someday
