We're so young and beautiful
Careless and free not a trouble in this world, honestly
These are the days to remember
Driving tonight just to ease the grind
Getting lost on this road of life
Take it in, make the best of whats around
The simple things will never bring you down

These are the moments to remember
Just try and hold them
Never let them go
These are the moments to remember
Nothing can bring you down tonight
This is the time

Driving on tonight, don't care if its wrong or right
Just living for tonight, Yeah
Such a fine situation
Losing the time never wishing for nothing more, no
All your troubles out the door

These are the moments to remember
Just try and hold them
Never let them go
These are the moments to remember

Nothing can bring you down tonight
This is the time

This is the time, this is the moment
Don't let this slip away
To short of life to waste it
Make the best of everyday
Make the good from bad, always first
Live your life, quench your thirst from love
From Love

This is the time...

Can't back down now
The moment only comes around once
So try to freeze it if you can

These are the days to remember, yea

It's alright, let go of yourself tonight
It's alright, and you know I'll be,
Right by your side

These are the moments to remember
Just try and hold them
Never let them go
These are the moments to remember
These are the moments, yeah

This is the time
