See her walk down the street
Skip on her feet
Snap on her fingers, she got the beat
Crazy eyed mama, ain't got a name
Everybody calls her the boogie bop dame
See her jivin' at the old paleis
Any time the old boogie's played

Well, boogie bop dame (boogie bop dame)
Well, boogie bop dame (boogie bop dame)
Well, boogie bop dame (boogie bop dame)
Well, boogie bop dame (boogie bop dame)
It's called the boogie, well, boogie bop dame
Rock now!

See her walk across the floor
Asking for more
You step out of line
She'll knock you to the floor
No use asking if she wants a lift
Everybody knows she works the midnight shift
You turn left, right too
Then you'll know she's in my groove

Well, boogie bop dame (boogie bop dame)
Well, boogie bop dame (boogie bop dame)
Well, boogie bop dame (boogie bop dame)
Well, boogie bop dame (boogie bop dame)
It's called the boogie, well, boogie bop dame
Rock now!

See her walk across the floor
Asking for more
You step out of line
She'll knock you to the floor
No use asking if she wants a lift
Everybody knows she works the midnight shift
Then you'll know she's in my groove
