I slip away
To keep what you see away
What makes you dream
And I can sleep for hours
To keep what you need away
What makes you see
And I can feel your need
To keep with you here
Do you think that now you
And I can feel the need
To keep from you here
It's written on his knees

Take a step from here
Take a step over
Always, always keeps you here
To stay and to be, to stay over
Is this what silence stands for?

And I can still inhale and taste what you breathe
It's the waste inside of me
And I will stay forever, exhale what you need

In a way it makes me clean

Take a step from here
Take a step over
Is this what silence stands for?
Be, keep and stand from me far away
I can sometimes still hear you scream
Keep and stand from me far away
And improve our site over me

Let the fear in me keep you here
And sometimes I cannot see
Is this what silence stands for?

Spread! Spread out!
Spread! Spread out!

Spread! Spread out!
Spread! Spread out!

Be, keep and stand from me far away
I can sometimes still hear you scream
What silence stands for?
