I.

Once we were lovers

But somehow things have changed

Now we're just lonely people

Trying to forget each other's names

Now we're just lonely people

Trying to forget each other's names

Chorus:

What came between us?

Maybe we were just too young to know

But now and then

I feel the same,

And sometimes at night I think

I hear you calling my name

Mm, mm, these dreams

Keep me going these days

II.

Once we were lovers

But that was long ago

We lived together then

And now we do not even say hello

We lived together then

And now we do not even say hello

(Repeat Chorus
