"Priestkiller"

A shed just behind the church
Where the priest would take him in
To teach him all about God's words
To free his youthful soul from sin
'Is this the love that Jesus taught us?'
The boy would often ponder
While inside him a beast was growing
That would tear his soul asunder

Bridge:

'The love of God is just a lie'
Soon he realized
'The love of God is just a lie'
All priests must die

Chorus:

Priest... Killer... Priest... Killer...
The years spent in pain, drove him insane, he's the Priest... Killer...

A dying soul in a living shell
At the end of his tether
'If I'm certain to go to hell
We will go together'
Bridge:/Chorus:

'For the Father and the Holy Ghost
And don't forget Lord Jesus
Kneel down on this "holy" floor
Open wide and please us...'

The creation of such a demon
Was spawn from the deeds of the priest
For without Heaven, Hell wouldn't exist
And without God there would be no Beast

Bridge: x2
