

Crossbow

"Walking Through Hell"

Visit "Walking Through Hell" on MotoLyrics.com

You got to live your life, the best that you can
You only get one try, it won't come again
You got to live with pride, and do what you want
Don't you step aside, cause if you do then they won't You got to stand your ground, and trust noone else
'Cause they'll let you down, they only care for themselves
You got to fight the fight, the fight for your life
Keep your goals in sight, and the dream will survive

Chorus:

Every man for himself, when we're walking through hell
Can't you see it's our destiny
No promise of love, no prayers to above
Can save us from what is to be
Be true to yourself, when you're walking through hell
Noone else shares your misery
No miracle dreams, no well-planned schemes
Can save us from what is to be

Keep your head held high, bow to noone
Dare to defy, your life is your own
Let your heart lead, to do as you wish
Make them bleed, so they know you exist
Chorus:

Doubts and wrong decisions make me scrutinize my soul
I look inside and try to find what I lack to be whole
When everything seems pointless then the faith you had seems lost
When standing at the crossroads do you know who you can trust?

When dying in the gutter do you know who mourns the loss?

Chorus to end

