Larry's in vegas..with some chick from L.A

the best things are sevens and sex is just ok so please stay

she said just stay cause there's a show at 11 and the drinks are all free you can do better for yourself but not me

...so please stay and keep me company.

All the while thinking this is the good luck,

stays with her most of the time takes time to make these machines work,

people are so unkind

Gets kinda nervous used to be hard.

She takes the edges off evenings in bedrooms and back seats in big cars.

All the while thinking this is the good luck

stays with her most of the time

it takes time to make these machines work

people are so unkind.

People are so unkind

She looks in the mirror to make sure she's here she keeps disappearing and dreaming of movie stars-weddings
and nothing is happening He tries not to notice
She thinks he doesn't care.
Capture yourself in a jar and you stay there, until you vanish
thin air
all the while thinking this is the good luck
stays with her most of the time
it takes time to make these machines work but he aint got time while she's riding in black cars and pokes at the sky to see if he can make stars and
people are so unkind
people are so unkind..
People are so unkind..
People are so unkind...
people are so unkind
People are so..
UNKIND
