Life is simple. Life is sweet.

Oh, so saddle up and go.

Little cowgirl, in the underground,

she talks to people she doesn't know.

Oh, people on the train to Eden

The circus girl, after all the rodeos,

she settles down alone.

She planted flowers in her basement

so she has a little color when the sky runs low.

[Chorus:]

She likes the weather today

She said "It's raining" in my head"

All of the flowers I've raised

Come up a little cloudy

Life is bitter. Life is cheap.

The cowgirl settles down alone.

Yeah, ten years out of Eden now

She's got a little garden of her very own
