There's something wrong inside my head

And I'm better off dead

It's over now the time of solitude

Everytime I saw you standing there

I caught you unaware

From the window sill to my despair

You're so serene.....

Now I wanna show you something

Don't you go away

I take sometime to talk it over

But I never ever find it

Now I wanna show you something

Don't you go away

I take sometime to talk it over

You're so serene.....

I can feel it in the air

When you're near and when you're there

I can feel it in air that I breathe

Everytime that you're running out of me

It's a sense of being lonely

You're so serene, so it seems
