"Evil Thing"

Bad luck, sent her bitch,
And she brought me dead down to my knees,
Wicked's the guiding light that
Led you straight to me.

So I have named you Evil Thing,
Because of all the pain you bring,
And you still had me screaming,
For you.

Chronic heart-aches have made me dull to,
The ones I care for most,
You're a parasite that's emptied me,
And left me a hollow host.

So I have named you Evil Thing,
Because of all the pain you bring,
And you still had me screaming,
For you.

You're my heart's greatest hate.
