"For Love"

for love-what would you do for love-break your heart in two for love-keep a love that's true for love-would you stay lowdown dirty and blue five years a long long time five years you made me mine five years of heart & soul five years now change my role now i cry myself to sleep & for you now baby i weep go out baby and live thought i'd given all i could give i understand everything i understand the gift you bring & still it drops me to my knees & i find it very hard to breath now place your little hand in mine aw babe i feel like i'm dyin your face your smell your lips & touch how i miss it all so much i'm sorry to make such a mess i'm sorry i can't cry a little less but a sea of sorrow's all around & their waves keep on crashing down i wish i could ease the pain i wish i could stop the rain but when all is said and done i'll be here to welcome you home
