A little Miss pretty pure,
So Sandra Dee pristine,
Something's crept into your world,
So untame, so unclean,
If love is such a beautiful thing,
Why does it hurt and make you bleed?

My little Miss victim now,
Shackled and ready from the start,
Seduction framed in white,
That's so perfect it's an art,
If you wanna tame that beast,
You'd better give it your heart.

My little Red Riding Hood,
Reborn in O.G. sin,
My little pink, shake it good,
Should've known from the beginning,
I'd be the wolf to chase you home,
If you weren't the snake who did good in.
