When the devil made you, well, he broke the mold,
You make a head so hot, you make blood run cold,
She-Devil, Satanic-She,
Well, you ain't no Venus in blue jeans,
Scream, She-Devil, scream, oh Lord she's going down.

It's just two X-chromosomes that got me high,
I want a piece of that forbidden pie, She's got a hot pool-o-sin, says she keeps it warm for me,
She's got two-inch nails, she's gonna make me bleed,
Scream, She-Devil, scream, oh Lord she's going down.

You think she's the one,
Oh, well, boy, you took a wrong turn,
Fall in love, you're gonna burn, burn, burn,
Well she looks like heaven, and she seems like a dream,
She could be an angel, but she's much too obscene,
yeah,
She's a booby trap.
