"Suicide King"

A cool king, I give you my soul,
And we live our true love ways,
I give you my heart,
But it's laid a waste.

A fool king, to give you my all
And leave not a thing for me,
I handed you my heart,
Now I'm incomplete.

Some days I cannot stop crying,
I've suffered all the loss that nothing gains,
Sleepless nights spent only to think of a way for you
To understand...
Without you here,
I'm just a solitary man.

A suicidal king, I'm dying for love,
The king of hearts, a king of fools, he's me,
I handed you my heart,
Now I feel empty.

Some days I cannot stop crying,
I've suffered all the loss that nothing gains,
Sleepless nights spent only to think of a way for you
To see just one thing...
Without you here,
I'm just a suicidal king.
