And my life's so stale,
The expiration date's come and gone now baby,
Leave me here to rot and forget about me please.

And I'm so cold,
I gave all my warmth to some fucking asshole,
And now I'm dead you see, just a lonely zombie.

And my heart's so sick,
I don't think I can handle this now,
Rigor mortis set in, good God I feel so stiff.

And my brain's shut down,
I went and hid, deadlock, baby,
I've lost all my memory, it's just post mortem me.

I'm just a lonely zombie.
