It took me such a long long time to heal the pain
It took me such a long long time to understand my fear.
I donâ€™t accept the fact of losing you.
I wanna take you back again and forget about the
stressful days.

I decided to go away from you to heal my pain.
I had to run away from you to comfort myself.
I donâ€™t accept the fact of losing you.
I wanna take you back again and forget about the
stressful days.

No tears, no screams no more excuses to choose
If you check inside of me youâ€™ll find that nothing can take away this blues.
It didnâ€™t take me by surprise to reveal the battlefield we went through Letâ€™s have peace again. I never, never would live without you. Yes itâ€™s true.
Please just stay with me again.
