Iâ€™m waiting for the eruption to come, I need one, I need one the widest smile an angels face skin so soft in a slender waist, jealous looks from all my friends as I walk with you perfect nails curly hair little short but I donâ€™t care, all these things I would love if I could love you

(one) canâ€™t you see Iâ€™m a mortal man
(one) and scared to facing you again yeah

Iâ€™m waiting for eruption to come I need one I need one

I need time to try my best then just die forget the rest hoping you could understand whatâ€™s stopped my heartbeat days of bliss have all gone when little kiss turned me on, you hear me laugh but I just cry as the sky above me

(one) canâ€™t you see Iâ€™m a mortal man
(one) and scared to facing you again yeah

one

just one
