(You a tease)
I'm calling you out boy
You acting like
I'm one of your little toys
I'm not something
You can pick up and drop
Either you want me
Or not
You're wrong if you think
That I'ma play along
I'm over you
So just be gone
You can keep on thinking
You hot, but you not

You a tease
Dancing around the lines
Back and forth
You a tease
Don't got time for you
To play with me
You a tease
Cuz boy I'm so through with you
Cuz I can play them games too
You a tease (Cuz you a tease)

All you do is spit game
But you missing out on
The best things
Cuz you can't
Make up your mind
You're just wasting my time
Texting me pics of you everyday
Thinking I'ma fall
From the look on your face
But you been mistaken
Not gonna be fooled that way

(Cuz you a tease)
You keep sending mixed signals
Tryna rap me around your finger

Not tryna hear that boy
You can keep on playing
but I ainâ€™t your toy

(Cuz you a tease)
Tryna steal my heart
Like a criminal
Cause you donâ€™t wanna pay
Make it official
Not tryna hear that boy

You can play those games
But I can play those games too
You can play those games
Cuz I be that fly chick
So what you wanna do
We gonâ€™ play that games
Boy I bet you gonna lose

You can play those games
You can play those games
So what you wanna do
We gonâ€™ play that game
Boy I bet you gonna lose
