"Steal My Life"

I'd rather die
than drown in my own tears
I'd rather cry
than get lost in my own fears
don't steal my life away
as these visions in my head replay I'm going insane stop suffocating me
you're the one to blame for your own damn misery I feel you tearing at my heart
I don't know what to do
I can't go back to the start I just want to be done with you You brought me down to hell and I want to disperse But you put me under a spell and now I'm under your fucking curse I'd rather die
I'd rather cry

as these visions in my head replay
I can't take this anymore all you do is threaten me I wanna throw you to the floor and I hope you beg and plea but it won't do you any good because I give no mercy I'll beat you like a should to settle this controversy Oh, I can't wait till that day when my fist breaks your face And I'll put you away
And you'll be back in your place
I'd rather die
I'd rather cry
You have no idea how I feel and I'm thinking of suicide I'm gonna bust out and reveal all the things I tried to hide

I have so many regrets all the things I did for you but I promise you won't forget what I'm about to do I didn't want my secrets out but you had to tell them anyway won't you shut your fucking mouth and listen as I say:
It doesn't take a lifetime to know what I'm about so listen to this morbid rhyme as I scream and shout
You took all I ever had and all I've ever wanted and now you wonder why I'm mad but soon you will be haunted by the wicked ghost of mine you should have let it go you had a chance to run and hide but you stayed and now you'll know

It's all in the past everything went by so fast I did what you thought I couldn't do and you said I wouldn't last but now I'm finally over you
