She never felt the same way holding onto his hand
But she thought that he would change Suddenly it hit her that the one she loved had strayed too far
The penny dropped it's obvious he's gone

He came home late from work almost every night And now she' gonna have to face the fact that he's not worth it

Get up get out you never listened anyway
Get up get out you never listened anyway

He said wait up
She said no way, your not listening to a word I say Cos when it happens all the time ain't got no peace of mind

He couldn't take the fact that outside there was more
But he thought that he could change Suddenly it hit him that the game he played had gone to far
The penny dropped it's obvious she knows

He took the bag that she packed with a cover note

And the only thing the letter said was your not worth it

Get up get out you never listened anyway
Get up get out you never listened anyway

He said wait up
She said no way, your not listening to a word I say Cos when it happens all the time ain't got no peace of
mind

September '92 she recalls when they first met dressed in black he looked just like the fonze (ey!) But now nine years on she left thinking what went wrong is this real or is this just a song

Get up get out you never listened anyway
Get up get out you never listened anyway

He said wait up
She said no way, your not listening to a word I say Cos when it happens all the time ain't got no peace of mind
