It's only a game so don't get to excited you've had your fun yeah I guess you've had your fill a one on one to make it right but I'm not hard core but once confronted not what he seems not what he seems cos when you see past the trickery and the disbelief it adds up to

Mike Aitken I hate him and if he sez a word to me
I can't be held responsible for all I say and do

It seems that everyday he gets more annoying I can't go on
With this charade he's not my friend he's not my friend

But nothings new and what to do I can't be seen to be a cry baby
So I go on and on and round and round tear my hair out
But all my problems add up to

Mike Aitken I hate him and if he sez a word to me
I can't be held responsible for all I say and do

I wish that I had never met him cos he whines on and on
And in a way I no it's my fault because I let it happen

Mike Aitken I hate him and if he sez a word to me
I can't be held responsible for all I say and do
