

48 May "Into The Sun"

Visit "Into The Sun" on MotoLyrics.com

Mind is ticking over
The voices in your head
Walls are getting closer
The enemy is dead

What have we become (What have we become)
Pictures on the wall

I used to think about the times
When I could talk about it
Walk into the sun

I used to think about the times
When I could talk about it
Walk into the sun

Forgive my interruption
The end is getting near
Body seize defunction
The brain has disappeared

What have we become (what have we become)
Letters never sent

I used to think about the times
When I could talk about it
Walk into the sun
I used to think about the times
When I could talk about it
Walk into the sun

Are you counting backwards
Keeping up when
Things go wrong
Time to change your tactics
Time to lead not tag along

I used to think about the times
When I could talk about it
Walk into the sun

I used to think about the times

When I could talk about it
Walk into the sun
I used to think about the times
I used to think about the times
Walk into the sun

Are you counting backwards
Counting backwards
