Look at the way things have drifted
It's dragging me back and forth
17 years and I'm not worried about a thing
The clouds I see are not too high

Still I don't believe things are so perfect
But if I try sometimes I just might get it right

This is my life and I
I'm looking for a reason
And I know I'm not
Afraid to crash and burn
This is my life and I
Don't need someone to lead me
I'm gonna fight and scream
And tear down all the walls
One by one

So what have I got to believe in
What can I say to you so things might come out right
Nobody needs to know a thing cause nobody gave me anything
All I can do is carve a road of my own

Still I don't believe things are so perfect
But if I try sometimes I just might get it right

This is my life and I
I'm looking for a reason
And I know I'm not
Afraid to crash and burn
This is my life and I
Don't need someone to lead me
I'm gonna fight and scream
And tear down all the walls

This is my life
I'm falling off the deep end
Falling off the deep end

This is my life and I

I'm looking for a reason
And I know I'm not
Afraid to crash and burn
This is my life and I
Don't need someone to lead me
I'm gonna fight and scream
And tear down all the walls
One by one
