Higher to fall...
Higher to fall...

Its there, inside my mind.
Nothing more to hide.
And nothing to show,
For all my torment...

I cant go back, ...no more.
Just turn to me, and Ill show you,
Exactly what's in store.
But still you look away, turn around,
And gently close the door.

Higher to fall...
Higher to fall...

Descend, below the line.
Afraid, of what you might find....

And was it a mistake,
To let your guard down?

We cant go back, ...no more.
Ill never go back, a second time,
Never return to the scene of the crime.
And you know what's in store,
As we climb, even higher,
And higher to come down.

Its not so far away...

I can see now it was all just a f#@$ing mistake.

Climb higher to fall.
