Secure an empty space,
And leave me to my mind.
Dissolve without a trace,
And leave it all behind.

Anything you said,
Whatever it meant,
How could I know?

Anywhere you ran,
Anywhere you went,
Show me how it goes.

Id rather Stand Alone,
Than with you at my side.
If there's one thing I've been shown,
Its that your life is a lie.

Insure a violent state,

From deep inside my mind.
Resolve to break away,
and leave it all behind.

Everything you said,
Whatever it meant,
How should I know.

Wherever you ran,
Wherever you went,
Show me how it goes.

Id rather Stand Alone,
Than with you at my side.
If there's one thing I've been shown,
Its that your weak world is a lie.

Alone.

Stand Alone.
