Bathe in the blood of the children
Earth is not their true mother
Host to the lack of forgiveness
We have given you nothing

A son is what they will give
And it will get you war
Warâ€¦Rise

Bound to a soulless existence
We are the children of nothing
Formed from the ash of rebellion
We have given a god king

A son is what they will give
And it will get you war
Warâ€¦Rise

Cleansed by the mouth of dominion
A seed from the womb of the mother
Devoured by a power thatâ€™s unseen
The future will give us another

A son is what they will give
And it will get you war
Warâ€¦Rise
