Yer high no way to disguise it you reek from here i can smell it you musta savored the flavor gave away things you shoulda saved r now i see you ride a bicycle beats ten years locked in a prison cell see you ride the wrong way down the highway pickin bottles tryin to git your fines paid

Alcohol it cost you everything took yer house yer car yer weddin ring good reason to drink even more dont care wanna die on the floor more alcohol for me to consume bottles everywhere all around the room im hammered from day to night only way i can tolerate life used to be you could go out and party now you stay home watchin the TV stayin home keeps you out of trouble no one likes your alcoholic double drink drink drink till ya get drunk drunk drunk then you fall down down..right down on yer face
