Why are you an imbecile I tell you I dont know why... lookin you straight in the eye..but theres just no use theres no excuse for your...odd behavior youre no savior youre like the devil it seems...bad attitude and blue jeans...and youre kickin that tail and takin no names yeah.. I cant stand you wont you get lost please just drop off and die...I can tell by the look in your eye..that theres somethin wrong with the man inside you....youre a moron you eat manure you talk shit till sunrise...freaks come in all shapes and sizes...but its a waste of time and its the same ol line yeah...shit for brains done gone insane tripped over the edge and never came back...took you down a one way train track...never seein you again its the best its ever been...I cant stand you wont you get lost please just drop off and die...I can tell by the look in your eye...that theres something wrong with the man inside you.
