"Speeding Away"

You can't hold on, there's nothing to grab
I'm empty inside, I'm pre fab sad
Nobody knows it, especially you
Cause how would I say it and what would you do?
So I run run run, yeah I'm shutting down
Turning off every sound

Speeding away, speeding away
Speeding away from you boy
Speeding away, speeding away
Speeding away from you boy

Don't try to follow, don't try to care
Don't be a hero cause there's nobody there
If you might see me then you might want her
If you might want her than I might hate you
It's a hate hate hate that was raised raised raised
Growing inside from a very young age

Speeding away, speeding away
Speeding away from you boy
Speeding away, speeding away
Speeding away from you boy
[x2]
