Yeah, yeah...

A kingdom is falling and i hear a calling.
Voices echoing into my head ,
Voices echoing into my head ,
yeah. They say that tomorrow is drowning in sorrow.
Gotta leave while the going's ahead,
Gotta leave while the going's ahead, yeah.
Gotta leave while the going's ahead.

CHORUS:

But I'm still here,
to live with the things that are always unclear
to bury alive all the life in me to pleasure the beast that is feeding me fear, though i disappear
I'm still here. I walk on a road that is led by the past, and the present is turning the future to dust.

Caught in a sphere , though i disappear
I'm still here.

Its hard to begin the struggle within,
to surrender without giving in to surrender without giving in, ooh yeah I I walk in the shadows and nobody follows
Gotta leave while the going's ahead.
Gotta leave while the going's ahead.

CHORUS:

Burnin up and changing everything i am.
If more is what you're needing, here i am...

CHORUS:

Im still here , Im still here , Im still here Yeah, yeah...
