Will I stop grieving, when I think of you, I never really knew, the things that you went through,
the late nights showing up, the early morning leaving, day after day and its not changing, struggling just to keep it together.

Left with a broken memory, empty emotions on over flow, what went wrong so long ago,
why did you go so long ago.

Black sky's fill my mind, lost in confusion, hope and despair all but gone, I don't know why you had to go, im left with the feeling, of no more on my mind, except the times spent with you, I think that will get me through.

Different times then to different thoughts, in this heart of mine, the haze in my mind, I feel you now so close, left with a broken memory, empty emotion on overflow, why did you go, so long ago.
