You dont know what it's like
To be living in poverty
This is the way I am
You dont know what it's like
To be living without a family
This is the way I live
Last six months havn't been
Shit to me, so here's my philosophy
This is the way I am
My girlfriend just said goodbye
To me so please don't fucking lie to me
This is the way I live

Blame my self its always my fault
Can't live with this I've set my self up
Blame my self its always my fault
Can't live with this I've set my self up

You don't know my friends and me we get so sad you see
this is the way I am
Sometimes I get so pissed off
At me when you just can't talk to me this is the way live
Lost my home at age 19 so please
Don't you comfort me
This is the way I am
So if you wonder what's wrong
With me ask yourself what you would think

This is the way I live

Blame my self its always my fault
Can't live with this I've set my self up
Blame my self its always my fault
Can't live with this I've set my self up

I am your silhoutte
I am your silhoutte
I am your silhoutte
I am your silhoutte

You dont know what it's like
To be living in poverty
This is the way I am
You dont know what it's like
To be living without a family
This is the way I live
Last six months havn't been
Shit to me, so here's my philosophy
This is the way I am
My girlfriend just said goodbye
To me so please don't fucking lie to me
This is the way I live

Blame my self its always my fault
Can't live with this I've set my self up
Blame my self its always my fault
Can't live with this I've set my self up
