[Intro]

Bro, yeah,
You know sometimes, I just feels like
A bad person you know
I feel bad sometimes, but I'm still doing this
I guess I got a ill mind like that, haha

I'm giving it you,
I'm giving it me
Forces I hear definitely agree
I'm going crazy no one can save me
So I throw my caution up in the breeze

Only stupid people name they daughters after cars
Hop in the ...Porsche, it's dangerous after dark
A stripper pole got slug tracks and nasty marks
I seen her slipping out on perversies and magic spark
I seen you always on your internet, you jag off
Download a beat for your tape and rip the tags off
A dollar isn't cheap enough, not even half off
A hundred bucks for kicks, now what your hats cost?
Growing up around, Mexicans and Portoricans,
I found appreciation for nice, for the reasons
A fine line between love and hate, border creeping
So I pray to god life now rated by Morgan Freeman
It's roll from the northern region, yep I'm sorta tweaking
Skeletons in my closet, deposit for pornos even Cannibals order vegan, more than me
Than killing a silly rapper while producing
Call me budo, you'll be more than grieving

I wanna be a good man but I'm never left alone
Demons follow me around in slow mo
Get your heat sensor, night vision, go pros
I tell them go but they always tell me no, no
No no, no no
I tell them go but they always tell me no, no
No no, no no
I tell them go but they always tell me no, no
No no, no no

I'm giving it you,
I'm giving it me
Forces I hear definitely agree
I'm going crazy no one can save me
So I throw my caution up in the breeze

Can't kill a demon, I know they are mortal
I dress formal from a funeral, I'm paranormal
Bermuda triangle, do you think there's a portal
If I always tread deep water and never wear a snorkel
Look over there edorsal, fin out the water clearing water
Stuck from my shark attack, I tear your torso
And I don't share a morsel, call me selfish but morsel
A soldier of fortune abortion, of nigga scared corporal
Ah, I keep it popping, but I never care for orthal
Red and buckler, my ... are not prepared for war hoe
I got a blue court...but never wear the wars robe
And I'm cheating on life with death, I never spare the...
I barely caught your
Lace up, don't drink... in the club over Rihanna
No holy water as I go holy bananas
Honest, I believe the end of the world is upon us

I wanna be a good man but I'm never left alone
Demons follow me around in slow mo
Get your heat sensor, night vision, go pros
I tell them go but they always tell me no, no
No no, no no
I tell them go but they always tell me no, no
No no, no no
I tell them go but they always tell me no, no
No no, no no

I'm giving it you,
I'm giving it me
Forces I hear definitely agree
I'm going crazy no one can save me
So I throw my caution up in the breeze.
