When you smile it's like you're waiting for something To spring from the back of your mind, when you speak it's like a certain from nothing nothing comes quicker than nothing you'll find

You're the kind of emotionless creature, bites at the hills of the needless seekers
...movess a long with the meaningless speaker, swinging your face, getting weaker and weaker

Chorus:

I hope you'll make it alright
I hope you'll make it alright
make you mind up, you get right up
and march to the mouth of the meaningless line up
I hope you'll make it alright
I hope you'll make it alright
you can sell dust and stealing the day like all that I care just as long as you're sleeping at night.

Can't you tell me, was you like me to say I was say it for you and you're out of your way certain long 'cause you're starting to scare of looks like you carelessly wasting away.

Cashing in on what you're believing trying to get up on the move fisting mirrors in the morning I've been calling the beast making those..moving at least.

Chorus:

I hope you'll make it alright
I hope you'll make it alright
make you mind up, you get right up
and march to the mouth of the meaningless line up
I hope you'll make it alright
I hope you'll make it alright
you can sell dust and stealing the day like
all that I care just as long as you're sleeping at night.

[Chorus:]
