Hangin' from the cosmic tree
A universal planted seed
A higher understanding
That can touch a new born heart

Take a look at history
As far as human eyes can see
Man will always tear his world apart

Stop!... look around.
Can't you see?
The galaxy of life
Will sheed you from his tree

Stop!... look around.
Can't you see?
The galaxy of life
Will sheed you from his tree

Has human nature reached it's peak?

So man must fly away to seek,
A life above the stars where all is so in one

Is the future plainly seen?
Will ice cover all that's green?
And planet will wait for somethin' new to come

Ooooh, Stop!... look around.
Can't you see?
The galaxy of life
Will sheed you from his tree

Stop!... look around.
Can't you see?
The galaxy of life
Will sheed you from his tree
