Fading is a lot of feel
Fading through my window
Night time always makes it real
That's the time the tears flow

Think I found a way to stop the pain
But it's breaking down my soul, my soul
Think I found a way to stop the rain
And I'm loosing my control
Got to find another way today

Look inside your heart
Feel guided what they hide
You'll find it

Rising, another day unfolds
I'm just another day old
Searching every particle
Running out of rainbows

Think I found a way to stop the pain
To stop this pain from breaking down my soul
Think I found a way to stop the rain
And I'm taking my control
Got to find another way today
