"A Man Alone"

In me, you see a man alone
Drinking up sunshine, and thinking it's his own
A man who listens to the trembling of the leaves
With sentimental ease

Easy to be a man alone
Just make the whole wide world your only home
Don't talk to strangers, some will not be kind
And muddle up your mind

Alone, not lonely
Except when the dark comes on
I'm a man learning to live with
Memories of midnights that fell apart at dawn

In me you see, a man alone
Drinking up Sundays and spending them alone
Man who still goes walking, walking in the rain
Expecting love again

Alone not lonely
Except when the dark comes on
I'm a man learning to live with
Memories of midnights that fell apart at dawn

Easy to be a man alone
Just make the whole wide world your only home
Don't talk to strangers, some will not be kind
And muddle up your mind
