You left me alone in dark
And made a pain just like a shark There's no need for talking Don't get tired for explaining

Nothing will be the same again
And our love never will begin
Stop telling me about your regrets

You'd never touch my soul again
And never search my hearth again cause i don't wanna hear your usual lies wowww, it's too late

i'm afraid ex love, i started to hate

I deeply felt as i die understood lately everything was lie Faught with my soul and heart
Try to push you away so hard

Nothing will be the same again
And our love never will begin
Stop telling me about your regrets

You'd never touch my soul again
And never search my hearth again
cause i don't wanna hear your usual lies

i'm afraid ex love, i started to hate
