"Together We Are"

I'm listening to the talking let my mind stop walking I'll be strong I can understand he held her tightly she held him tighter the heavens stand between where they stand well all that I have now's a glass full of memories reasons beyond me I'm alone I stand in my own light whilst in the shadows you remind me of me

standing to tenderness
where we stay clear

we are together yet we are apart going our own way to find where we start
we are together yet we are apart
going our own way conversation going on all around me I join some I leave some and some never found me hearing that music up in the peat? my heart starts a twitching to who I will meet my time is all I've got it's so bad watching it drift away whilst I long to understand all I do in just one day

whilst I long to understand

you remind me of me

going our own way
