"Arrows"

You can't break me
You can't take away what's true
You don't make me
I do

All this time I spend alone
Just playing records, writing songs

So who the fuck are you
To be the way you are
Throwing words like arrows
But only from afar

You can't change me
You can't make me think like you
You don't make me
I do

Who's to say that I am wrong
To write these words to get along

So who the fuck are you
To be the way you are
Throwing words like arrows
But only from afar

I just want to play
I just need to celebrate
Stay out of my way
I don't hear what you say
