At our best, still so perverse
Twisted and cursed - by the very verse
We had our chance but we made it worse
Living in reverse - have we ever heard
Just one word
Of the lessons ignored

In all this time have I not learned
You never get what you deserve
In all this time have I not worked
Yet receive not one reward
In all this timeâ€¦the lessons ignored

Silence now. Afraid to speak
Afraid to teach. Will we ever reach?
All this stings like another scheme
Caught in between a bitter dream
What have we done?
Will the lessons weâ€™ve heard

In all this time have I not learned
You never get what you deserve
In all this time have I not worked
Yet receive not one reward
In all this time that Iâ€™ve endured
A world thatâ€™s so unsure
In all this time have I not earned
A respect for this words
In all this timeâ€¦the lessons ignored
