I remember when your eyes met mine
I remember when your hand fell in mine
Wrong reasons can be bad
My reasons in the end made you sad
In the end

I remember the things that I said to you
I remember the pain I put you through
I remember when you said
My heart is dead

I remember when you taught me
I remember when she was around I could be me
There was one thing that wasn't right
When she was around all the time
So I said good bye
I remember the things that I said to you
I remember the pain I put you through
I remember when you said
My heart is dead

I remember that one night
I met this girl she changed my life
Her eyes they melted me
When she was around I was happy
Because she completed me

I remember the things that I said to you
I remember the pain I put you through
I remember when you said
My heart is dead
