There's a reason, for the season, Jesus is the name There's a reason, for the season, let us praise his name
Christmas comes this time of year, great times for young and old
Difference are set aside and kindness does unfold We eagerly unwrap our gifts and sometimes give a shout
But let's not forget what, the season's all about

There's a reason, for the season, Jesus is the name There's a reason, for the season, it's always been the same Christmas comes this time of year, good times for young and old
There will be good fellowship and carols will be sung
We eagerly unwrap our gifts and sometimes say yahoo
But there is a reason he die for me and you

There's a reason, for the season, Jesus is the name
There's a reason, for the season, let us praise his
There's a reason, for the season, the one who bore our pain
Any other reason would truly be in vain
There's a reason, for the season, the one who bore our
pain
Any other reason would truly be in vain.
