There is a story in my head.
It wakes me up when Iâ€™m in bed
And then I come to realize
Iâ€™ll never find my paradise.

This life of mine is like a cage,
I donâ€™t know how to turn the page.
I tried to light a cigarette;
Too many voices in my head.

Itâ€™s time for me to leave this town.
Iâ€™ll drive all night to get around;
The places that Iâ€™ve never seen:
So many people rest in peace.

Iâ€™ll burn it up, Iâ€™ll crush it down,
Letâ€™s live it up, letâ€™s do it loud.
Iâ€™ll burn it up, Iâ€™ll crush it down,
Letâ€™s live it up, letâ€™s do it loud.

When the night falls, the stars rise up above.
I know that there is someone there, with whom weâ€™ll
share our love.
And Iâ€™m thinking of her and perfume;
I imagine her face, as you come in my room.

When the night falls, the stars rise up above.
I know that there is someone there, with whom weâ€™ll
share our love.
And Iâ€™m thinking of her and perfume;
I imagine her face, as you come in my room.

Iâ€™ll burn it up, Iâ€™ll crush it down,
Letâ€™s live it up, letâ€™s do it loud.
Iâ€™ll burn it up, Iâ€™ll crush it down,
Letâ€™s live it up, letâ€™s do it loud.

This life of mine is like a cage,
I donâ€™t know how to turn the page.
I tried to light a cigarette;
Too many voices in my head.
