Never could imagine life without you,
From the moment you walked into my world
Never knew how long a loving flame would burn,
But losing you has forced me to learn...

That we can't change the way we feel inside
And every try at love never turns out right
We both know,
It's better if we just let it go..

So lets have,
One last kiss,
One last touch,
One last tender moment between us..
One last dance to our first song,
While pretending there's nothing wrong
Lets lay here for a while,
And cherish every moment we're in denial
We both know its better if we just let it go

Everytime I try to take a stand at all
I see your face again and I fall
In the middle of the night there's a scent of a rose
The smell of your perfume I suppose

But we can't change the way we feel inside
And every try at love never turns out right
We both know,

It's better if we just let it go..

So lets have,
One last kiss,
One last touch,
One last tender moment between us..
One last dance to our first song,
While pretending there's nothing wrong
Lets lay here for a while,
And cherish every moment we're in denial
We both know its better if we just let it go

Maybe if we met each other under a different sky,

Maybe then things would be much better between you and I..
We can always hold on to this one special thing we share
But it would be too much for us to bare

So lets have,
One last kiss,
One last touch,
One last tender moment between us..
One last dance, to our first song,
While pretending there's nothing wrong
Lets lay here for a while,
And cherish every moment we're in denial..
We both know its better if we just let it go,
Let it go,
Let it go...
