(Verse I)
I just can't understand
Why you do the things that you do
Never really thought that this was in you, baby
But on the other hand
For the past two weeks you're acting brand new Talking 'bout everything is still cool, ya crazy

(Pre-Hook)
Why you playing games with me
Our love ain't the same you see
Now look what you started
I feel so departed
But it's your loss, and it's all good
Cuz I know what you are, sneaky just like a crook
You're killin' my heart, and it's hard to believe it
Should've known from the start, but looks are deceiving

(Hook)
Now I see you, now I don't
You're a magician
Love's your illusion
Used to believe you
Now your curtain is see-thru

(Verse II)
I gave you all of me
And you were giving all of yourself
Not to me but everyone else, yeah yeah
I loved you foolishly
Excusing every one of your lies
Boy you had me so hypnotized

(Pre-Hook)
Why you playing games with me
Our love ain't the same you see
I'm done with your creeping
No more cheating I'm leaving
But it's your loss, and it's all good
Cuz I know what you are, sneaky just like a crook

You're killin' my heart, and it's hard to believe it
Should've known from the start, but looks are
deceiving

(Hook)
Now I see you, now I don't
You're a magician
Love's your illusion
Used to believe you
Now your curtain is see-thru

(Bridge)
There ain't nothing new to this
That's why I am through with this
I can't take no more, no more, no more I'm over it
Kept playing your little tricks
Lost the best that you can get
I can't take no more, no more, no more, I'm over it
(Repeat)

(Hook)
Now I see you, now I don't
You're a magician
Love's your illusion
Used to believe you
Now your curtain is see-thru

Now I, Now I see
Now I, Now I don't
Now I, Now I, Now I
Now I Don't
