winter is you your smile and tender touch the dreams you helped come true the way you changed my life so much do you recall, the vow of love we made when hope was all it took to be strong and not afraid

I think of how we were and i feel blessed the moments that we shared they were the very best, yeah

Chorus:
and we'll dance among the clouds we'll sail the milky-way far from the jostling crowds we'll fly away
when christmas brings its cheer ill always no somehow your near nothing can keep us apart cuz no matter were you are you'll always be
in the center of my heart

i see your face way deep inside my eyes still bathed in starlights grace my love's a faith that never dies the north star burns It has a twinkle bright and by the chill within you were here with me tonight and our truth can live through all of time and space our bond's too strong for distance to erase, yeah

you gave me the gift of flight to see endless horizons, yeah to know the gift to go within to a place no one else can see a gift to navigate the stars of life to know love when it comes the gift of knowing who I am for it to be

you'll always be in the center of my Heart
